At the front of the property is a beautifully proportioned dual-aspect living room, filled with natural light and centred around a log burner. Built-in cabinetry to the chimney breast recesses and wooden flooring add both character and practicality.

Behind, the dining room enjoys views across the garden and features a charming cast iron fireplace, continuing the warm and characterful feel.

To the rear, the kitchen overlooks the garden and offers space for a table, making it ideal for informal dining. It is fitted with a range of wall and base units with work surfaces, tiled flooring, space for appliances and a door providing direct access to the garden.

The lower ground floor offers particularly flexible accommodation and is currently arranged as two bedrooms alongside a practical utility area. This level could equally function as guest accommodation, a teenage retreat or workspace depending on requirements.

On the first floor, a bright landing leads to the bedrooms and study, along with a separate shower room. The main bedroom benefits from built-in wardrobes and an en-suite shower room. There are two further bedrooms, a study/home office and a well-appointed family bathroom.

Outside, the rear garden provides a private space to relax and entertain. A terrace extends from the rear of the house, leading onto a lawned area. At the rear of the garden, the garage has been converted into a home gym, with gated access beyond providing off-street parking.
